Children's Party at Governor's Home.
The children of Honolulu are invited to an "egg-rolling contest" at Governor Frear's Monday afternoon. This is an old-time custom of the Governor and Mrs. Frear's, and each year is keenly anticipated by the little ones.

Among those who will assist in entertaining the children at the Easter egg rolling, on Monday next, at Arcadia, will be: Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. Hendrick, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Joseph Emerson, Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. and Mrs. Philip Dodge, Miss Frances Lawrence, Miss Cross, Miss Dillingham, Miss Alice Brown, Miss Cordelia Gilman, Miss Helen Holron, Miss Jane Winne, Miss East, Miss Shaw, Miss Margaret Cooke, the Misses Kopke, Mr. Walter Dillingham, Dr. Scudder, Mr. Clive Davies, Mr. von Holt, Mr. Willard Brown, Mr. Ebersole, Judge Whitney, Mr. F. T. Dillingham, Judge Lindsay, Mr. John Erdman, Mr. Wm. O. Forbes, Mr. Lyle Dickey, Mr. Theodore Richards, Mr. White Sutton.

The post-Lenten season will be inaugurated by the Pacific Club dinner-dance next Friday evening. Society is eagerly looking forward to this event, which will doubtless be one of the most brilliant of the season. Many dinners have been arranged for the occasion, and the display of gowns promises to eclipse anything hitherto attempted. Among those who will entertain at dinner are Messrs. Geo. R. Carter, R. Ivers, F. Klamp, E. P. Bishop, L. T. Peck, Gen. Macomb, F. E. Thompson, and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King's Dinner.
Houses ornamented the handsome table of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King's when they entertained a complimentary dinner to Senator and Mrs. Charles Rice of Kauai. The artistic arrangement for this affair was beautiful and unique. Those present were Senator and Mrs. Charles Rice, Senator and Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Mr. Thomas King, Captain Moor Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Deering, Mr. Lewis King and others.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr.'s Dinner.
Senator and Mrs. Eric Knudsen were the motif for a beautiful dinner that was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr. Pink roses and purple violets were used profusely on the daintily appointed dinner table. The hand-painted place cards were much admired. Among those who attended this delightful affair were Senator and Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, and others.

Mrs. J. S. Walker's Luncheon.
Shasta daisies and pale blue silk mulline produced an effective decoration for the luncheon at which Mrs. J. T. Walker presided as hostess Thursday afternoon. Owing to the Lenten season this was an informal affair, the invitations being issued by telephone. Those present were Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Madam Kimball, Mrs. Arthur Brown, and others.

Miss Hoffman's Dinner.
Miss Florence Hoffman entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Katherine Stephens. Pink roses and hand-painted place cards formed beautiful accessories for the beautifully appointed table. Among those present besides the attractive young hostess were Miss Katherine Stephens, Miss Alice Cooper, Miss Helen North, Doctor Gillespie, Lieut. Pine Lieut. Turner and Mr. Clarence Waterman.

Miss Louise Girard, daughter of Colonel Girard, arrived on the Sierra today, to visit her sister, Mrs. Frederick Klamp. Mr. and Mrs. Klamp and their house guest will spend a week at their beach place. They will entertain a week-end party, in honor of their guest. Miss Girard lived in Honolulu at one time, when Colonel Girard was stationed in the islands. She is a very pretty girl and very popular.

Mrs. Belle Jones' Luncheon.
Sweet scented gardenias and Australia maidenhair fern figured prominently in the decorative scheme of the luncheon, when Mrs. Belle Jones entertained at the P. C. Jones mountain home complimentary to a trio of California society women who are sojourning at the Seaside Hotel. The twelve covers were designated by hand-painted guest cards. Those present at this affair were Mrs. Belle Jones, the guests of honor, Mesdames Kelley, McBride and Gibbons, Madam Kimball, Madam Harnden, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Mrs. Arthur Brown and others.

Mrs. Ranney Scott's Luncheon.
One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was in honor of Miss Juliette Hartwell, when Mrs. Ranney Scott entertained at her new home in College Hills. The decorations pertained to the approaching Easter-tide and were beautiful in every detail.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowrey's Picnic Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey entertained Sunday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald and Mrs. and Miss Margaret Scott of Hilo, Hawaii. The party motored around the island, "picnicking" on the other side of the island. The party was composed of ten people.

Engagement to be Announced.
An engagement will be announced shortly after Easter. "Little Dan Cupid" has been hovering around, although it is the Lenten season, this little worker is never found napping, and is always on the alert to promote the happiness of others.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kluegel's Home Party.
Mr. and Mrs. George Kluegel entertained a number of their friends at a home party at Kaula. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell, Miss Grace Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus and others.

Service Bridge Club Postponed.
On account of Holy week, the members of the Service Bridge Club did not hold their fortnightly meeting Monday afternoon of this week, the meeting being postponed until Monday of Easter week.

Judge and Mrs. Whitney's Dance.
Judge and Mrs. William Whitney will give a dancing party at their home 1645 Binham street, Monday evening, April the seventeenth. About twenty-five couples have been invited.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin will leave today for the east and Europe, where they will remain during the summer. They will enjoy a brief visit in New York and will go at once to Paris, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins Crocker. Their plans after the visit in the French capital are not definite, and it has not been decided whether they will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crocker to London for the coronation ceremonies. They have an extended plan of travel for the summer, but will probably visit London in June, when many San Franciscans will be there for the social festivities of that month.—San Francisco Call.

Miss Phinney of California, is the guest of Mrs. Hart at Waikiki. Miss Phinney is a great friend of Mrs. Charles Elston, a daughter of Mrs. Hart, who is also visiting at her mother's home. Mrs. Elston was Miss May Hart of this city, and is a universal social favorite. Owing to the Lenten season, Mrs. Elston has not been accepting many invitations—many plans are being formulated to entertain her, a number of these affairs will be informal for Mrs. Elston is devoted to out-of-doors, being an enthusiastic swimmer, equestrienne and tennis player. For a number of years she held the ladies' tennis championship of the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCandless are stopping at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, Cal. Mr. McCandless will have to be in Honolulu during the second week in June. As his stay in Honolulu will be of a short duration, Mrs. McCandless may not return to Honolulu, but probably will visit her mother in Tacoma, Washington. When Mr. and Mrs. McCandless return to Honolulu for the winter season, Miss Beattie Hardner, a sister of the latter, will return with them and spend the winter here. Miss Hardner is an accomplished and attractive girl, and is quite well known here, having visited in Honolulu, and also in Hilo, Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilder and Mr. and Mrs. L. Hommendorf enjoyed an automobile trip around the island of Oahu, Sunday. This trip is growing more and more popular and Haleiwa is "filled to overflowing" with weekend parties—as a number of town folk prefer to motor to this suburban hotel Saturday and return to town either Sunday evening or early Monday morning.

Mrs. Marx and Miss Katherine Stephens did not leave for the mainland on the transport Crook as was reported. Captain Marx has not received his orders and it is to be hoped that this department at Washington has decided to have him remain in Honolulu. Mrs. Marx has been quite ill with La Grippe and confined to her home for the past week.

Major Roosevelt, U. S. A., a cousin of ex-President Roosevelt, was the guest of honor at an informal luncheon, that was given Thursday afternoon by Captain and Mrs. Arthur Marx at their home on Kinau and Pensacola street. Major Roosevelt was a passenger on the U. S. S. Sherman.

Captain and Mrs. Haight, two children and maid spent the week-end at Haleiwa. The Haight's attended the hop on Sunday evening, that proved such a successful affair. It is customary for the officers and families at Lihoua to motor to Haleiwa and spend Saturday and Sunday at the "Home Beautiful."

Mr. St. Clair and his sister, Mrs. Southgate have leased the Store's home in Manoa Valley. Mrs. Southgate has become a great favorite in Honolulu. She is a tall, stunning woman and is very interesting to meet, having traveled extensively, and is a gifted conversationalist.

Mrs. Andrew Brown and Miss Phillips are moving into their artistic new bungalow on Pensacola street. The interior of this home is as pretty as the exterior. The living room is beamed and the floor is highly polished.

Mrs. Francis Gay returned to her home in Kana'i this week. It was hoped that Mrs. Gay would make a longer stay in Honolulu, she is a great social favorite and her friends were all anxious to shower social attentions upon her.

Miss Emma Lyons entertained informally at tea, Thursday afternoon. About a half dozen of her friends were telephoned and invited to this "chintzy tea." Many dainty articles for charity, were fashioned on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morse, Mrs. C. C. Morse and Miss Morse, enjoyed an outing at Haleiwa, Sunday. The party motored to this pretty hotel by the sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Damon, formed a party Sunday, and motored around the island of Oahu. A delicious luncheon at Haleiwa, added to the pleasure of the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Underwood, have rented the Gold beach home at Kaula for the summer and will move in this attractive bungalow the first of June.

Captain and Mrs. Lowrey of the U. S. Navy and their young son, left Honolulu for Mare Island on the steamer Siberia.

Miss Helen Holron is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. O.

The Best Of All "Outdoor" Shoes For Women—

REGAL OXFORDS

Only in expensive custom-built footwear will you secure equal style, quality, fit and comfort. Our new models in Women's Regal Oxfords accurately reproduce the smartest custom Oxford shapes for this season. Miss May Damon spent a portion of last week at Haleiwa.

Mr. and Mrs. King of Minneapolis, Minn., are registered at the Haleiwa Hotel.

After a pleasant outing on Mt. Tantalus, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bottomley returned to town the first of the week.

Miss Minnie Schmidt is visiting her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt, at their home on Green street.

Miss Edna Curtis, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sam Peck, at Kaimuki, returned to her home at Curtisville, Hawaii, Tuesday.

Senator and Mrs. Charles Rice are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King.

Senator and Mrs. Charles Rice will spend Easter with the Clifford Kimballs at Haleiwa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dwight Lowrey and Mr. Sherwood Lowrey are planning to go Monday to their mountain home, "Niniko," and spend two weeks. On the twentieth of May Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey will sail for California; from there they will cross the American continent and embark from New York for an European trip. On their return to this city their son, Mr. Sherwood Lowrey, and Miss Ida Kopke will be married.

Senator and Mrs. Knudsen's guests were Miss Juliette Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dwight Lowrey, Miss Bernice Hartwell, Miss Catherine Goodale, Miss Claire Williams, Miss Violet Mahee, Dr. Hedeman, Mr. David Anderson, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. Ed. Hedeman, Mr. Bruce Cartwright Jr., and Mr. George Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Folson and Miss Folson of New York, left on the Siberia after spending the last month at Haleiwa. They have had much social attention at Schofield Barracks, where Capt. and Mrs. C. Sidney Haight, who was a Folson, have entertained them several times.

Last Monday the Folsons gave a small dinner for Col. Wilder, who has just come to take command of the Fifth Cavalry. Major Remon and Capt. and Mrs. Haight were the other guests.

Miss Constance Folson entertained at a dinner and dance at Haleiwa on Tuesday last. Fourteen sat down at a beautifully decorated round table on the lanai. The Haleiwa Quintet sang during dinner and for the dancing later, which was most enjoyable, as the full moon together with the out-door dining and dancing, quite entranced the visitors. Besides the hostesses those present were Capt. and Mrs. Haight, Capt. and Mrs. Orton, Lieut. Warren, Rothwell, Sheridan and Winter; Mr. and Mrs. Folson, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball and Mr. Schaefer.

Madam Kimball has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. V. Forster, but will spend Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley.

A New Waist With Aeroplane Sleeves

THE aeroplane sleeves of this dainty little blouse are less wide at the top than at the elbow, where they are gathered into a deep cuff, bordered with ing applied to the front in broken cas-cades. Pin tuck clusters between the lace insertions cause the blouse to fit perfectly across the shoulders at back and front, and at the bottom it is shaped that scarcely any fullness is held in by the belt of the tailored skirt of bronze brown serge.

wing trimmings of valenciennes edging, matching the broad insertions and the transparent stock. Another novel feature of this exceedingly chic little garment is the lace edged, yard long fullness of the sleeves.

HOW TO PLACE RUG FOR BRIDAL COUPLE.

Near the pulpit a rug just large enough for the clergyman and wedding couple to stand on must be laid out during a part of the service. When this is put down a white rug laid over it is effective and most practical.

A few flowers should be put about the room in vases and jars, but when money is an object a few blossoms are quite as pretty as many.

At a home wedding, unless it be a large one, the bride rarely has more than one attendant, and it is not necessary that she shall have any.

A best man is rather necessary for the bridegroom, for the former is useful as well as ornamental. That is a matter for the individuals to decide.

The Wednesday Bridge Club will meet with Mrs. Winter, wife of Captain Winter, on Wednesday of the coming week.

Mrs. Frederick Kingsbury and her sister, Miss Love, who have been the guests of Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury on Maui, will return to this city on Wednesday, and will sail on the Wilhelm April 26th en route for their home in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted, with their daughter and Miss Mayme Jordan, who spent several winters in Honolulu, are visiting at Kingston, Jamaica.

Miss Margaret Scott of Hilo, Hawaii, Messrs. Robinson (2) from Kauai, Mr. Robert Thompson, Lieutenant Pardee, Lieutenant Rodgers, Lieutenant Andrews, Mr. Gaylord, Mr. Damon, Mr. Bert Clark, and others.

SUGAR EXPORTS, FIGURES JAPAN

Sundry Civil Bill Authorizes Start With Three Million Dollars.

According to T. Shimanura, special sugar commissioner of the Japanese government, who is in the United States studying sugar plantations, Japan will not only produce her own sugar before long but will grow sugar for export. Shimanura is in Washington for a few days and in an interview in a local paper he said in part: "I have visited the sugar plantations in Porto Rico," and the sugar manufacturing plants, and I have also made sugar studies at your Department of Agriculture, and I have seen and learned much which will be of inestimable value to us in our efforts to supply Japan with all the sugar she needs.

"Forenoon at this time produces a good deal of sugar, but not sufficient for our needs. Being a tropical country, cane sugar is cultivated, and we expect before many years to produce

Homemaking

IT IS NOW INCLUDED IN THE MODERN SCHEME OF EDUCATION.

THIS true homemaking is so much in demand that our colleges are giving special courses to bring back the over-educated modern young woman to the home. "The history of a happy nation is the history of its homes." And as a great nation we can't afford to neglect ours.

The woman who keeps up a cheerful atmosphere in the home, who provides appetizing, nourishing food and comfort for her husband and children, is doing a great work, far greater than she who neglects husband and child and goes out in the world to make her mark. She can make it infinitely more successfully at home and in such a way that her work will influence many lives besides her own.

To be a homemaker means something more than a housekeeper. A good housekeeper often succeeds in making home the most cheerful place on earth with her polished floors over which one hardly dares to walk and her best furniture she hates to have one use.

A homemaker, on the contrary, would make a cheery place of an attic or receive in one room so that you would think you were in a palace. She knows just how to place pillows at the most comfortable angle and how to plan a little dinner that is a miracle of coarseness and yet is inexpensive.

Most girls when they marry want to be homemakers, but their ignorance of household matters prevent them from being successful. That is why these courses in colleges and public schools are such good things—they help the future wives and mothers of this land to insure their own happiness.

The day will surely come around again when the lady kept home will be the exception instead of the rule and when a woman will glory in her house-keeping as her mother did; but, even more than that, she will glory in the happiness of those whose comfort is entrusted to her care.

Wide Girdles For Spring Wear

THE wide girdle will be a feature of all dressy gowns this spring, and the clever woman will thus have a chance to remodel her short waisted girdles. This picture shows two very attractive specimens, one of plain satin with a bow at one side of the back and tasseled ends, the other of Dralene silk and fringe.

enough for our own needs, as well as to ship to foreign markets. "Most of the sugar consumed in Japan is imported from Java, and the consumption of the article in my country is increasing every year. The American article is too expensive, which accounts for the fact that we do not import it."

Speaking of Japanese sentiments with regard to America, Mr. Shimanura said: "I cannot understand you Americans. Everywhere I have been I have been asked whether Japan would go to war with the United States. It is a puzzle to me. We do not want war with any country, and least of all with America."

INDEPENDENTS NEW FILMS.

Tonight there will be a large crowd clamoring for admission to the Independent Theater on Hotel street near Nuanu. Here are to be seen new pictures, some of the latest films just put on being the story of "A Clergyman and His Wards," "A Reno Romance" and "The Policeman's Son." There are other films, but the three named are the chief attractions in the picture line. There are several comedies and one or two romances. In addition there are vaudeville "stunts" particularly the lady who is a mystic in the art of baffling those who endeavor to bind her in such a manner that they think she cannot escape from her bonds.

The Independent Theater will soon announce a surprise which will interest all.

Seats are the cheapest in the city, ten cents for adults and five cents for children.
